14.2. The Share Capital shall be increased in accordance with the Resolution of the General Meeting and Section 10.4. point b) of the present Articles of Association, and based on the Resolution of the Board of Directors.

The Share Capital increase may be executed through the following methods: the issue of new Shares; conversion of capital reserves into registered capital; the issuance of employee Shares; and the conditional increase in the Share Capital by means of issue of convertible bonds.

In the Resolution on the matter of ordering Share Capital increase, the General Meeting or the Board of Directors amends the concerning sections of the Articles of Association, related to the amount of Share Capital, the amount, the types and the face value of Shares in accordance with the result of subscription and increase of Share Capital. The concerning amendments become effective by the date the subscription is closed and deadline set for the statement to be made in connection with the commitment of Share takeover has passed.

14.3. In case of increase of Share Capital by way of issue of new Shares in private via performing in kind contribution, the General Meeting or the Board of Directors shall determine in the Resolution ordering such Share Capital increase, the persons authorised by the General Meeting or the Board of Directors to take the subscribed Shares, having regard to their previous commitment. 14.4. In case of increase of Share Capital by way of cash contribution, the Shareholders of the Company – according to the conditions set out by this Articles of Association - are entitled to preference right of subscription and ranked as follows: in the first place, Shareholders owning Shares within the same series of Shares, then the owners of convertible bonds and bonds with subscription rights. If the Share Capital is increased through issue in private, preferential subscription right shall mean preferential right to takeover of Shares.

A requirement for the exercising of the preferential right is a commitment – made by the Shareholder – regarding the purchase (takeover) of the amount of the Shares to be acquired by him. Such commitment shall be made within 15 (fifteen) days from the publication of the announcement about the increase of Share Capital and the opportunity of practicing preferential rights.

The Company shall inform the Shareholders about the amount of Shares acquired this way within 7 (seven) days after the 15 (fifteen) days expiry date; and if the payment is completed, the surplus amount is transferred back. If – based on the valid commitment made by the Shareholders according to the practicing of preferential right – the amount of the Shares to be acquired exceeds the maximum amount set out by the Resolution of the General Meeting or the Board of Directors, the Shareholders can acquire the Shares according to the „principle of card distribution“. According to such principle each subscriber receives one Share per capita until it reaches the amount equals to the maximum amount of the cash contribution set out in the Resolution ordering the Share Capital increase or it reaches the amount wished to be subscribed by the subscriber. The Company notifies the Shareholders – with the repayment of the surplus if the payment has already been performed - about the amount of the Shares acquired according to this method within the 7 (seven) days starting on the day following the final day of 15 (fifteen)-day-deadline.

The data of the Share Register – effective on the date the Resolution is made on the increase of the Share Capital – shall be taken into account regarding the personal information of the Shareholders and the amount of Shares owned by them. The bondholders (if any) can exercise their right described above according to the provisions of the Resolution on the Share Capital increase.

In case of increase of Share Capital by way of issue of new Shares in private via performing in cash contribution, the General Meeting or the Board of Directors shall determine in the Resolution ordering such Share Capital increase, the persons authorised by the General Meeting or the Board of Directors to take the subscribed Shares, having regard to their previous commitment – if the entitled persons mentioned above – in whole or in part - do not exercise their preference right regarding the takeover of Shares. The Resolution shall determine also the exact number of Shares of each of the persons can take.

The General Meeting – pursuant to the written proposal of the Board of Directors – may exclude the exercising of preference rights. In case of that, the Board of Directors shall present the reasons of the proposal and the proposed issue price of the Shares. The General Meeting makes its Resolution regarding the acceptance of the proposal, with 3/4 majority.

The increase of the Share Capital, by the way of issue of new Shares, fails if:

- some of the Shares fails to be subscribed or the subscription fails to reach the minimum volume of the subscription of Shares before the closing date of subscription during the issue of new Shares in public, except the case when the subscription is ensured by subscription guarantee;

- the persons, appointed in the Resolution of the General Meeting or the Board of Directors, fail to undertake commitment for Share takeover in accordance with the proposed price or the minimum price of face value or issue price set out in the Resolution, during the issue of new Shares in private.

14.5. The General Meeting and the Board of Directors may decide on conditional increase of the Share Capital, if the aim of such increase is to issue convertible bonds.

The Company, up to the half of the amount of the Share Capital, may issue registered bond which shall be converted to Shares if so requested by the bondholder (convertible bond).

In case of increase of the Share Capital by the way of issue of new Shares in public, the Company may issue registered bonds, which grants a right of subscription for the bondholder, after the Shareholders have exercised their subscription right (bonds with subscription rights).

The Board of Directors – in the framework of time and approved amount Share Capital set out in the Resolution of the General Meeting pursuant to the section 10.4. point b) of the Articles of Association – may decide on the issue of convertible bonds either in public or in private. In this case, the Resolution on the issue of bonds, and on the matter of converting convertible bonds to Shares, shall be made by the Board of Directors, that is entitled and obliged to amend the Articles of Association.
